IN FRONT OF CHICKOO'S HOME.

MEET THE BREEZE & THE RUSTLE OF LEAVES.

TREES ARE LUSH AND THERE'S A CHIRP
IN THE FLOWERY BUSHES.

When the branches of trees make sweet canopies and their shade becomes the most comfortable place in the world, that's when the song of life flowers. You can hum it with the wind, buzz it with the bees or sing it with the birds!

A NEST OF COSY MUSINGS.

LYING ON YOUR BACK
EXPLORING ON A WHIM.

Enter a home that's made for breezes to blow in and for the sunlight to play hide-and-seek.

Discover spaciousness that gives you the similar joy of the great outdoors, especially, on a rainy day when all you want is to look at the water splashing on the windows with a cup of hot chocolate in your hands. Oh! What comfort after a rainy day's explorations!

Ariet's Impression

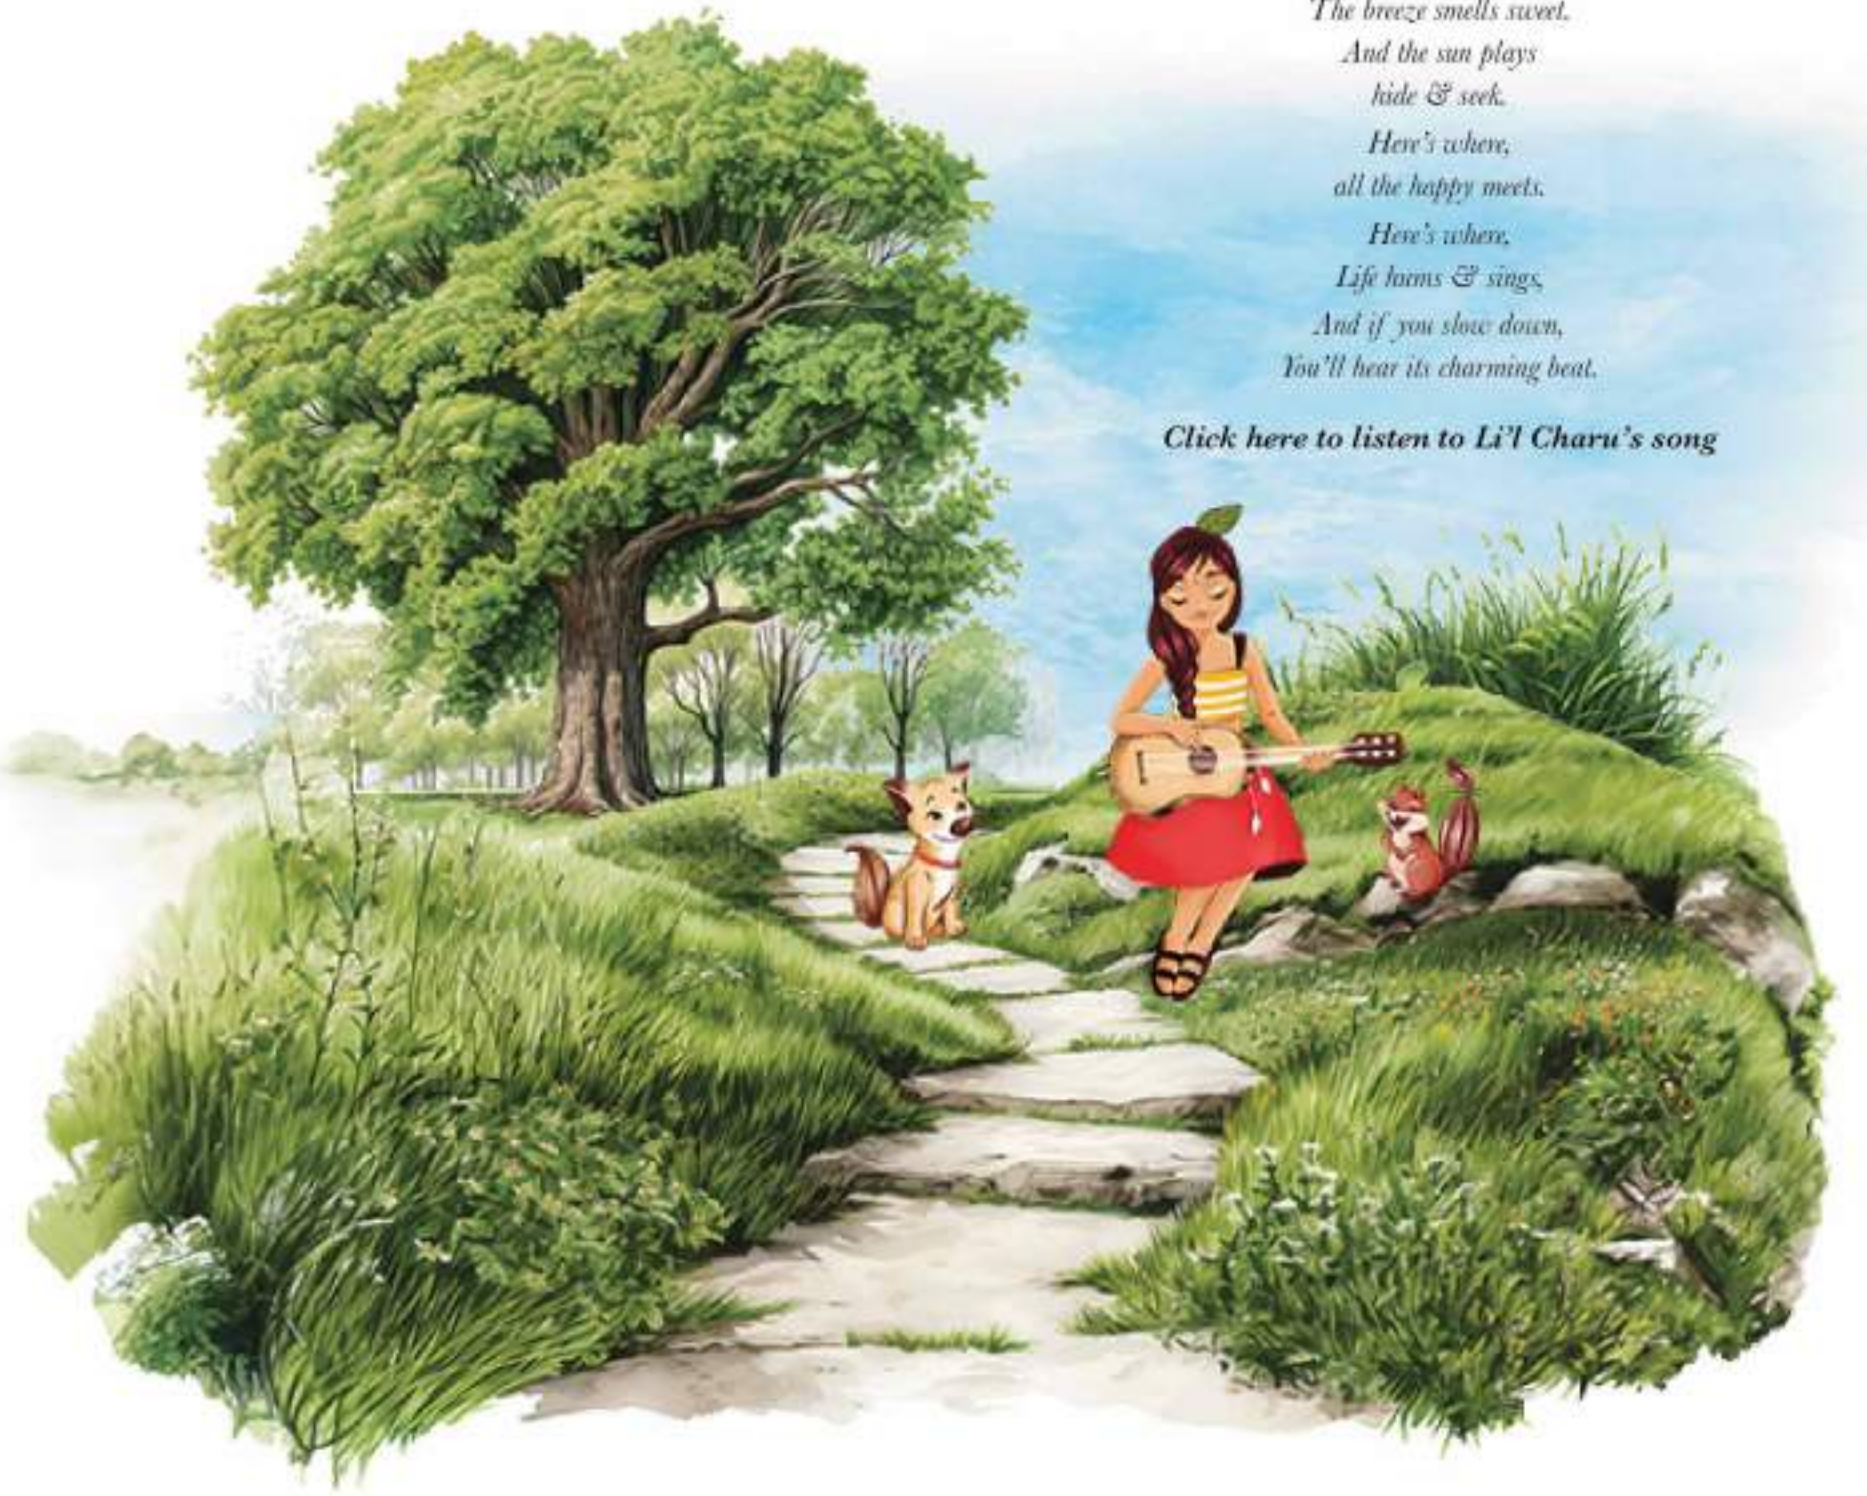

Relaxation here goes beyond walls. Walk through the preserved tree grove after a rainy day or unwind in our hammock garden, where nature cradles your peace, and the world's worries gently sway away.

NAPS ARE MY FAVOURITE TREAT.

The air is filled with the invigorating scent of earth and leaves, while the symphony of birdsong provides a harmonious backdrop. Charu's lyrics come to life, weaving seamlessly into the landscape.

*Under the tree
Where the grass grows free,
The breeze smells sweet,
And the sun plays
hide & seek.
Here's where,
all the happy meets.
Here's where,
Life hums & sings,
And if you slow down,
You'll hear its charming beat.*
